Insert from line 17 to 18:

The electric vehicle (EV) is not a solution to all these negative effects. Technological progress is not always a synonym for societal and environmental progress. While we believe that technological progress can have an important role to play in solving the climate and biodiversity crises, we are critical of approaches that tend to overestimate the positive impact of technologies to avoid addressing core issues and engage in systemic change. Moreover, it has its own environmentally and socially negative externalities,
